

Interviewer: How do you happen to be here?

- Someone asked me to come over here and test a new cereal, Puffed Corn Flakes!

Interviewer: What do they taste like?

- It tastes like corn flakes with a kind of a bite to it. Yeah, I don't like a cereal that kind of just lies there.

Interviewer: Do you like this?

- It's good! I've never tasted anything crispier. It's got a nice sound.

Interviewer: You don't think it's too noisy?

- No-no, no-no, not unless you live in a real small apartment.

Narrator: New Post Puffed Corn Flakes, puffed to be crisper than plain corn flakes.
