

- I had cancer.

- In a year, he'd be talking as well as me. I know because I'm the volunteer who's helping him to learn the way this man helped me years ago.

- More people are surviving cancer than ever, so we need more ethic care than ever. When you give to the American Cancer Society, your money talks.