

Dick: Basketball's been good to me, like picking me for the west all-star team three years in a row. I've had it good that way. Once I was on a job that gave me medical and dental care, a 30 day paid vacation, and lots more. Know who I was working for? The United States Air Force. That's right. And they'll have that kind of job for you too. Call the Air Force and see for yourself. (locker door clanging) (men chatting quietly)
