

- I don't understand why you're such a fussy eater Harvey. Oh you certainly don't get from our side of the family. (dog whines)

- What's this dog food called? Gravy Train, makes it's own gravy right in the bowl or something. That wouldn't impress you of course. Nor the fact that this is a perfect dog food nutritionally. (clicks tongue) Oh lets see it says you add warm water and stir a minute. My goodness, gravy happens. Real gravy. Looks like beef stew. I said it looks like beef stew. Okay, here, turn it down like the others. Refuse to... (dog chews food) You're eating it. You're eating a dog food. Children, Harvey's eating a dog food. He's eating Gravy Train. I love you. We all love you. Children.

Announcer: - Gravy Train another fine product of General Foods. Makes its own gravy.
