Announcer: Well say, maybe you should see a doctor.

- I did. The doctor said, "Got a cold, get some rest." This is gonna help me do that.

Announcer: Well, NyQuil, huh?

- Of course. At bedtime, NyQuil relieves stifles, sneezes, coughs, aches, congested, so I can get the rest I need.

(woman coughs)

Announcer: Tonight, let NyQuil give your cold a rest.
