Announcer: New Seven Seas Russian is what's happening to salads. The first creamy Russian you can buy. Made the way true Russian should be made, with a heart of real relish. Look, all the wonderful ingredients that make relish like green peppers, tomatoes, spices, herbs are blended into egg yolks, vinegar, oil. Blended 'til they're homogenized into a free-flowing mayonnaise-type of dressing. Delicious. New Seven Seas Creamy Russian, with a heart of real relish. And try new Seven Seas French, Creamy Italian and low-calorie dressings. They're made with marinated spices. ♪ Make something happen to salads ♪ ♪ That never happened before. ♪
