

- Hey, come here. I want to show you some something. No, it's not my early Vaudeville friends. But the guys who worked on Texaco's first oil well over 76 years ago. Today we need more American oil than ever before. And Texaco is looking for oil in more than 25 states, from Alaska to the Gulf of Mexico. And now, Texaco is even exploring in the Atlantic. A hundred miles off the coast of New Jersey. At Texaco, we're using our energy to bring you more energy. We're working to keep your trust.
