

Narrator: Here we are again, folks, for Peter Paul's Almond Cluster, and you're in luck. Last time, we didn't show you our candy because it was so ugly. It bulged from the way they stuffed those almonds and crunchy stuff inside. Well, this time, we're not gonna show it again. Instead, cover your left eye and check your eyesight. While you're checking, enjoy an Almond Cluster, because despite its ugly looks, it tastes just beautiful. Crunchy, chocolatey. Beautiful. Okay, now cover your right eye and enjoy another Almond Cluster.
