

- While the Dunns sleep, an evil thing happens. A pasty film covers their mouths, teeth. They wake with the worst breath of the day.

Both: Morning.

- Mouthwash. Scope?

- I use mine.

- Yours leaves your breath mediciny. Smell. Not minty like Scope.

- But mine cleans.

- Can't clean your mouth better than scope.

- All right. Clean.

Both: Morning.

Narrator: Scope fights bad breath. Doesn't give medicine breath.
