

- There's nothing worse than having a cold at night. I'd lie there, all stuffed up. I tossed wide awake and sniffing. I couldn't get comfortable and punch the pillow and sneeze. (sneezes) Tickle in my throat. (coughs) Dead tired and miserable. Who can sleep with all that going on? Then I discovered this new cold medicine, NyQuil.

- New NyQuil, powerful cold medicine you sip at night. Fights all your worst cold miseries for hours so you can get to sleep.

- It relieved my sniffles, my sneezes, runny nose and my scratchy throat. My cough, my aches and pains. Best of all, I can get what I really want, some sleep. That way I'm worth something in the morning.

- Try new NyQuil. The night fighter from Vicks.

- It's got everything.
