

- Hey, big Harry, something brand new for dinner. See this? Gaines Select Blend, complete dog food. Scientifically selected for a taste dogs love. I picked it out in the store myself, but even looks different and tastes a lot better than other dry dog food. It's got liver flavor, chicken flavor and meat flavor chunks all mixed up together in it. You like it, huh? That'll be your favorite and you'll want it every night.

Narrator: Select Blend, the dog food so delicious, he'll love it every night.
