

Narrator: Star Slugger, Jim Gentile hits one down the first base line.

- You're out dad!

Narrator: Hey, what team's this?

- We're the Gentile team.

- Fastest growing team in America.

Narrator: What's big on the training table?

Jim Gentile: Post Grape Nuts Flakes are big at our training table.

Narrator: Why's that?

Jim Gentile: Because they're made of whole wheat and we know that's real good for you.

- We like them best.

- Yeah, they got malt and honey in them.

- All that malt and honey they put in Grape Nuts Flakes makes them sweeter than any other wheat flakes, and they help keep my favorite team growing.

- Come on Scott.

(plate clanging)

Jim Gentile: Start your day a little bit better, the sweetest tasting wheat flakes ever.

- They're real sweet.

Jim Gentile: Post Grape Nuts Flakes.
