- If you want to know the truth, Kara and I could never even have thought about going to Miami if it hadn't been for the Happy Holidays Plan Eastern Airlines had. It was just like landing in one of your own dreams. What a neat hotel we stayed at with a terrace and a pool. All day long, we'd swim and gallivant around our new drive and swim some more. That's where I met Jerry, right at the pool. (tone chiming) At night there was dancing and terrific entertainment, which Kara and I were no longer paying for, of course. That was the most wonderful trip anybody ever had, except for my honeymoon, which Jerry and I are going to San Juan on next month, via the same airline. (jazz music)

- Come fly to Florida with a friend during the summer season. Summer is the in-season for high living at low cost. Eastern Airlines or your travel agent will tell you all about it, make all your arrangements. Come fly with Eastern and meet the nicest people. (upbeat music)
