

- Sylvia, I want my money back.

- You want your money back? What's wrong?

- I ordered the low-cholesterol special, and a cheese sandwich is not low in cholesterol.

- It's not cheese. It's New Age Sandwich Slices.

- It sure tastes like cheese.

- It's New Age Sandwich Slices, the great new cheese substitute. New Age is made with pure vegetable oil. It has 90% less cholesterol and 75% less saturated fat.

- Really? (gasps) It could be a delicious part of my diet to fight cholesterol.

- Sure. You can have New Age again tomorrow. New Age smokey slices make a great grilled sandwich. Or try New Age American flavor with macaroni, and nachos made with New Age hot pepper slices.

- Hey, how about a chef salad with New Age Swiss flavor?

- That's the low-cholesterol special tomorrow.

Narrator: Introducing New Age Sandwich Slices. It sure tastes like cheese.

- With a lot less cholesterol.
