Narrator: Did you ever notice this about Hardee's fries? Almost nobody can resist digging in before they sit down. See what I mean? And it's true. There goes one now. And there goes another. Watch this guy, you think those fries are gonna make it to the kitchen table? Not a chance. Now, just 'cause you're talking's no reason to stop munching. Now watch him. One for me, one for me, and one for me. Whoop, caught him. You know, it's no wonder, Hardee's fries are crisp and fresh and very tasty. Hardee's fries, the fries that seldom make it to the table.
