

(mellow music)

Narrator: This is Bob Hope for Texaco in the beautiful Puget Sound country of Washington. At this time of night here in the town of Anacortes, almost everyone's sound asleep, but in this town of 8,000, there's a place that never sleeps. (upbeat music) That place is the Texaco Refinery. While working to keep the air and water clean and pure, Texaco is busy every hour of every day refining crude oil into gasoline, aviation fuel, heating oil, and heavy industrial fuel oil. And it continue to bring you the fuels you need. Texaco is increased it's manufacturing capability and modernized its refineries around the country. (alarm clock) To get you through the day, our refineries everywhere are on the job night and day because at Texaco, we're working to keep your trust.
