Woman: Wait till you see the baby.

Man: Does she look like me?

Woman: She looks exactly like you.

Man: I don't wanna wake her up. (man sneezes)

Narrator: Sneezing we notice but government sponsored research recently concluded, coughing spreads more cold virus than sneezing.

- Look, the baby's awake. (people cough and mumble)

Narrator: Vick's Formula 44, we made it to help coughers. That's why it works like codeine but without narcotics.
