

- Just look at these handsome Gaines-fed dogs, eyes bright, energy bounding. Now, can you tell which dog is the grandfather? Would you guess that Max here is seven years older than Grandson Gene? They had me fooled too. You see, both dogs were raised on Homogenized Gaines Meal. And I'd call that living proof that Gaines can help your dog, like Max here, to a longer prime of life. So start your dog on Homogenized Gaines Meal tomorrow. You'll save money too, because most grocers are now featuring these money-saving specials. You'll find a coupon, worth 10 cents, packed right in this special five-pound box. And that's not all. You'll save 25 cents on this special 25-pound bag of Gaines. So get Homogenized Gaines Meal in these money-saving packages tomorrow, and help start your dog on his way to a longer prime of life.
