

- Being a mouth is no easy life. Particularly if you're mouth to a guy who smokes big cigars, or likes weird tasting foods. All of that can leave a very bad taste with me, not to mention, bad breath. Fortunately, this guy I'm mouth to, he uses Scope mouthwash. Scope's a real me-refresher. Better than any of those other mouth washes him and me have tried before. (yawning) It's morning. And here comes the Scope, like a good cold shower. (water pouring) That's what Scope is to me, refreshing. Once in the morning and me and his breath feel fresher for hours. Hey look, if it weren't for this Scope, can you imagine what my job would be like? Bad breath. I'd quit. Scope, do your mouth a favor.
