

Joey: Hey Jim, come quick. Flying saucers!

- Calling my flapjacks flying saucers, bet you'll sign up for that first trip to the moon, Joey. Haha!

- Not unless I'm sure I get good cooking like yours, Pete. And plenty of good Borden's milk to go with it.

Narrator: I don't know anything as good with breakfast as a glass of Borden's milk.

- Unless of course it's another glass of Borden's milk.

- Right! Now drink up, Joey. We got along right ahead of us this morning.

- This good Borden's milk will keep us going.

- You would drink up to, you know every meal at a time for Borden's, between meals too. It's good and so good for you. So kids, won't you to make sure that your mom always keeps plenty of that good Borden's milk on hand. And I do mean Borden's, it's the only milk that we drink. ♪ Hey Mom! Be sure to buy Borden's
