- There they are, Sally, pick the one you like. They're beautiful animals.

Woman: Thank you we're quite proud of them.

Man: And what's, what's his name, coming down there through the field?

Woman: Oh, that's Chris, he's our newest champion.

Man: Beautiful dog.

Woman: We're particularly proud of him.

Man: Oh, what do you feed all these collies?

Woman: Oh, they all eat Gaines Meal. We've been feeding it for eight or nine generations now and they do very well on it.

- They sure look good.

Woman: They've got good coats, and they stay in good condition on it. We're very pleased with the results we get from Gaines Meal.

Man: They sure seem to like it.

- Oh, they clean it up. They dive into those dishes and clean it up to the last little nugget at the bottom of the pan. I think that puppy's got something else on his mind. I think he's found friend.

Man: I think you're right. I guess that's the one we'll take home, huh? Do you recommended that I feed the puppy Gaines Meal?

- Oh, by all means, it's a good, balanced diet and the puppies like it, the grown dogs do, too. (dog barking)

Announcer: Gaines Meal, another fine product of General Foods.
