

DUKE
UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Eleventh Sunday After Pentecost

August 20, 2006

Eleven o'clock in the Morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"Dream of Solomon" by Luca Giordano, 1693

The focus of this week's scripture readings is on the gift of wisdom. Wisdom, in the Old Testament, often outlines concrete and practical ways for people to live out deliberately their commitment to God. Incorporating wisdom into even the small dimensions of daily living provides a way of inviting God into the contours of each day. Biblically, wisdom is considered an attribute of God, and, particularly in the book of Proverbs, tends to take on feminine attributes. Wisdom is also often understood in the Christian tradition as representing the third person of the Holy Trinity—the divine breath that participated in creation still participates in the recreation and renewal of those who seek her.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue and service.

† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's Docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

† Children aged 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet or change infants are also welcome.

† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children five or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children's bulletins are available from the ushers.

*We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth and adults), mission and outreach, as well as pastoral care. Sing and Bless the Lord

Kurt Kaiser
(b. 1934)

Sing, my soul, and bless the Lord, for He alone is worthy praising.
Sing a song of jubilee and let the song be unabating.
Sing we now to honor Him, laud His triumph over sin.
Let us sing redemption's song,
Let it last the whole day long
For He has brought restoration.
Sing, my soul, in joyous song, for He alone is worthy praising.
Now and through eternity we'll praise His wonderful works.
Hallelujahs we will sing,
And the mountains echoing His praises
In heaven and on the earth.
