

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Eighteenth Sunday After Pentecost

October 8, 2006

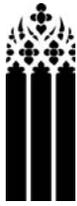

Eleven o'clock in the Morning

≈ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ≈

"Jesus Blessing the Children," by Louis Comfort Tiffany St. John's Episcopal Church, Somerville, NJ

A prevalent theme in the scripture lessons for this Sunday is the abundant care of God. The author of Hebrews asks "What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them?" And yet all three of our lectionary passages reveal that God gives deep and loving attention to humankind. Although the suffering of Job is difficult to comprehend, the passage reveals that God intimately knew Job's heart and his faithfulness. In God's yearning for humanity, the book of Hebrews articulates that Jesus came to earth in order to call us brothers and sisters. And Mark describes Jesus' embrace of children, showing the depth of God's care even for those who are considered unimportant by worldly standards.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue and service.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

OFFERTORY

We Love the Place, O God

Herbert Sumsion
(1899-1995)

We love the place, O God, wherein thine honor dwells; The joy of thine abode all earthly joy excels, we love the house of prayer, wherein thy servants meet; and thou, O Lord, art there thy chosen flock to greet. We love the sacred font, for there the Holy Dove to pour is ever wont His blessing from above. We love thine altar, Lord; O what on earth so dear! For there, in faith adored, we find thy presence near. We love the word of life, the word that tells of peace, of comfort in the strife, and joys that never cease. We love to sing below for mercies freely given; but, O, we long to know the triumph song of heav'n! Lord Jesus, give us grace on earth to love thee more, in heav'n to see thy face, and with thy saints adore!

—W. Bullock and Sir W.H. Baker

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for Durham Congregations in Action, an interfaith organization consisting of sixty congregations. Their goal is to work for peace and justice as well as to promote reconciliation within the Durham community. A brochure listing their ministries as well as a description of YO: Durham, a new DCIA outreach to at-risk youth, will be brought forward during the offering.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Page 17 in the hymnal. The congregation will sing the responses.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

(The people come to one of the communion stations, receive the bread and wine, and return by the side aisles. The people may drink from the cup or they may receive the elements by intinction—dipping the bread into the wine. Those in the last rows of pews commune at the stations toward the rear of the nave at the ushers' direction. Those in the transepts will be directed to their stations.)

COMMUNION ANTHEM

I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes

Leo Sowerby
(1895-1968)

I lift up mine eyes to the hills. From whence does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. The Lord will not let your foot be moved, the Lord who keeps you will not slumber. Behold, the One who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade on your right hand. The sun shall not smite you by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord will keep you from all evil, and will keep your life. The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore.

The Faith & Money Conference will explore investment strategies that mean not having to choose between helping those in need and getting a healthy financial return. Ched Myers, theologian, scholar and founder of Bartimaeus Cooperative Ministries in Oak View, California, will be the featured speaker.

The day is not just for those who have their own investments but for anyone who has an interest or say in the investments of for-profit or non-profit organizations. In addition to discussing such investments as mutual funds, 401 (k) plans and IRAs, the conference will look at Community Development Finance Initiatives (CDFIs), which are aimed at helping those in poverty find a way out.

“It’s not a straight choice between giving all your money away to charity or creaming off a little of the interest you earn on your investments,” says the Rev. Dr Samuel Wells, Dean of Duke Chapel. “The secret is putting the capital to use for social good without necessarily giving it away. We’d like people and organizations to consider investing at least some of their capital in a CDFI.”

In addition to Duke Chapel and Immaculate Conception, event co-sponsors are Good Work, Sabbath Economics Collaborative, Self-Help Credit Union and the North Carolina Council of Churches. This is the first of a series of such gatherings Duke Chapel is hoping to organize in cooperation with local churches and non-profits.

To RSVP, please fill out the following information, tear off the form, include a check for $15 per person, and drop it off at the attendant’s desk at the entrance of the Chapel.
