

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Twelfth Sunday After Pentecost

August 27, 2006

Eleven o'clock in the Morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

The last week has been a special one in the life of the University, as new students and faculty have made their way to campus and have begun being oriented to the Duke community. As such, Orientation Sunday is filled with new faces, new energy, and warm welcome. If you are new to Duke, consider making the Chapel an integral part of your Duke experience. The compass represents the act of “orienting”—because no matter where we are on earth, a compass will always point to true north. In the midst of exciting and sometimes difficult life transitions, the Chapel can serve as a compass at Duke University, pointing faithfully to encounters with God—and a life shaped by joy, fellowship, purpose, and attention to Christ.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue and service.

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.

† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's Docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

† Children aged 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet or change infants are also welcome.

† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children five or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children's bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are looking to make Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Josh Hubert at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

OFFERTORY

When in Our Music God Is Glorified

David Ashley White
(b.1944)

When in our music God is glorified, and adoration leaves no room for pride, it is as though the whole creation cried Alleluia!

How often, making music, we have found a new dimension in the world of sound, as worship moved us to a more profound Alleluia!

So has the church, in liturgy and song, in faith and love, through centuries of wrong, borne witness to the truth in every tongue, Alleluia!

And did not Jesus sing a psalm that night when utmost evil strove against the light? Then let us sing, for whom he won the fight, Alleluia!

Let every instrument be tuned for praise. Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise! And may God give us faith to sing always Alleluia!

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!

Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

Today we lay a compass on the altar as a symbol of Orientation Sunday, and we pray specifically for those people who are new to Duke, that they may find here a faithful community of friends.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Page 17 in the hymnal. The congregation will sing the responses.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

(The people come to one of the communion stations, receive the bread and wine, and return by the side aisles. The people may drink from the cup or they may receive the elements by intinction—dipping the bread into the wine. Those in the last rows of pews commune at the stations toward the rear of the nave at the ushers' direction. Those in the transepts will be directed to their stations.)
