Service of Worship

Fifth Sunday of Easter
May 3, 2015
Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Bridging Faith and Learning ≈

Today marks the final Sunday the Chapel community will worship in the Duke Chapel nave before the sanctuary is closed for a year of restoration. This is an historic time for this church, when the community will spend a year journeying. Beginning May 17 the Chapel will worship in Baldwin Auditorium on Duke's East Campus, and starting in August we will be back near the Chapel in Page Auditorium. This is a season for the Chapel community to journey as a church without walls, to discover more of who the Chapel community is and who God is, and to offer our prayers to all those who will make the Chapel their workplace for the coming year.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.*

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

RESPONSE

RESPONSIVE READING (Adapted from the Chapel's dedication service in 1935)

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our ancestors; may he not leave us or abandon us,

But may he incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our ancestors.

Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children.

Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands—O prosper the work of our hands!

But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built!

Regard your servant's prayer and his plea, O Lord my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you today.

But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.

O Lord, I love the house in which you dwell, and the place where your glory abides.

Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.

But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this inscription:
"The Lord knows those who are his." And "Let everyone who calls on the name of the Lord turn away from wickedness."

For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ.

So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

O Lord, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your holy hill?

Those who walk blamelessly, and do what is right, and speak the truth from their heart.

But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock,
and the door will be opened for you.

You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.

I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY

In That Great Gettin' Up Mornin'

Traditional Spiritual
arr. Fenno Heath
(1926–2008)

In that great getting' up mornin', fare thee well.

Stop and let me tell you about the comin' of the Savior.

God's gonna up and speak to Gabriel.

Run and look behind the altar.

Then the time shall be no longer, for the judgment day is comin'.

Now pick up your silver trumpet, blow your trumpet, Gabriel.

Lord, how long shall I blow it? Blow it so my people know it.

Then you'll see the coffins burstin', see the dry-bones come a-creepin'.
Hell shall be uncapped and burnin', and the dragon shall be loosened.
Then you'll see the moon a-bleedin', you will see the stars a-fallin'.

Then you'll see the sinner saying, down I'm rollin', down I'm rollin'.
But the Christians will be risin', and the righteous will be marchin', Marchin' to their home in heaven, marchin' to their home with Jesus.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, there is a server near the Memorial Chapel who will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine. If you will not receive communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether

Harold Friedell
(1905–1958)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether; for when humbly, in thy name, two or three are met together, thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Touch we now thy garment's hem.

As the brethren used to gather in the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup:
Alleluia! Alleluia! So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be.
Alleluia! Alleluia! We will serve thee faithfully.

—Percy Dearmer, 1931

Ave verum corpus

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
(1756–1791)

Ave verum corpus, natum de Maria virgine, vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine, cujus latus perforatum unda fluxit et sanguine: esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.

Hail true body, born of the Virgin Mary, who truly suffered, was sacrificed on the cross for mortals, whose side was pierced whence flowed blood: Be for us a foretaste of heaven during our final examining.
