

DUKE
UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Fourteenth Sunday After Pentecost
September 10, 2006
Eleven o'clock in the Morning

☞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ☞

Jean Colombe, "The Canaanite Woman," 1485-89

Today's readings all address an issue that is neglected by many contemporary Christians: the relationship between the Church and Israel. Has the Church replaced Israel? If so, where does that put the trustworthiness of God, who pledged his love to Israel for ever? Is the State of Israel somehow a fulfilment of God's plan, or a terrible blind alley? For the New Testament, the status of Israel before God was of the utmost significance. So should it be for us.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue and service.

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.

† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's Docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

† Children aged 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet or change infants are also welcome.

† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children five or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children's bulletins are available from the ushers.

*We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. Dean Sam Wells and President Richard Brodhead will make remarks and place a wreath on the plaque.

BROADCASTS—Thanks to the Friends of Duke Chapel, the Sunday service is broadcast live every week over AM 620 WDNC and one week later on Raleigh station 570 WDNZ and Franklin County station 1480 WYRN at 10:00 a.m. If you have access to the web, the service is also available via streaming video at www.chapel.duke.edu.
